

A histogram showing the distribution of values for three groups: expert (dark red), novice (white), and intermediary (pink). The x-axis is labeled 'Values' and ranges from -1.02 to -0.94. The y-axis represents frequency, with horizontal grid lines. The novice group shows a very sharp peak at approximately -0.96, while the expert and intermediary groups show much broader, lower distributions.

